

Constitution Day Hub

The Constitution Day Hub was created by 23 of the most highly respected, non-partisan civics education groups in the country. It is a site dedicated to offering educational institutions free, easily accessible education materials focusing on the United States Constitution. The site offers materials for all grade levels, with distinct areas for elementary, middle, and high schools.

Constitution Day was established as part of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2005 which states that

“[e]ach educational institution that receives Federal funds for a fiscal year shall hold an educational program on the United States Constitution on September 17 of such year for the students served by the educational institution.”

Participating Organizations

ABA Division of Public Education
ABOTA Foundation
Annenberg Classroom
C-SPAN Classroom
Center for Civic Education
CFR Education
Eastern State Center for Justice Education
Edward M. Kennedy Institute for the US Senate
Florida Joint Center for Citizenship at the Lou Frey Institute
George Washington's Mount Vernon
Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History
Historical Society of Pennsylvania
Indiana University's Center on Representative Government
Library of Congress
National Constitution Center
PBS News Hour Classroom
Rendell Center for Civics and Civic Engagement
Retro Report
Sphere Education Initiatives
Street Law, Inc.
Teach Democracy
Thomas Jefferson's Monticello
Youth Leadership Initiative

Click on the QR code or go to Constitutiondayhub.org to explore how this website can aid educators on Constitution Day!